The CLA is the membership organisation for owners of land, property and businesses in rural England and Wales. For information on our work and how to join online, visit www.cla.org.uk

The Advisory Services are made available to members on the basis that a member's rights to compensation and the liability (if any) of CLA and its officers and/or its staff advisers, are restricted in the following ways. In the event of any advice given by any CLA staff adviser being given negligently or otherwise being incorrect no liability whatsoever is accepted by CLA or its officers or by its staff advisers concerned (a) towards any person who is not the current CLA member to whom the advice was directly given, (b) to any person in respect of consequential loss or loss of profits, or (c) to any person for any sum exceeding £50,000 in respect of any one enquiry (whether made or responded to orally or in writing and whether dealt with at one time or over a period of time).

Any person making use of the Advisory Services accepts such restrictions. If damages restricted to the above financial limits would be inadequate in the circumstances members should consider referring to appropriate professional advisers in private practice before taking any particular course of action potentially or actually involving any substantial amounts of money.

Solicitors in the CLA Legal Department are not covered by the Solicitors' Indemnity Fund in relation to professional negligence in relation to any advice given by them.

No responsibility for loss occasioned to any person acting or refraining from action in reliance on or as a result of the material included in or omitted from this
