Hi Chris

I hope that you survived the winter snows storms that brought the north to its knees. Fortunately I avoided them by being out of the UK for most of the winter.

You will recall that I have previously written to you in respect of the inaccuracy in the draft Minutes of the RPPDG meeting on 9 November and the comments by [REDACTED] with regard to [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

I recorded [REDACTED] comments during our conversations and have submitted them for the benefit accuracy in the Minutes.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] My notes of this encounter are accurate. I am perhaps more disappointed than surprised that you have chosen to sanitize the actual conversation and publish the Minutes in their present form despite corrections made by both [REDACTED] and myself.

I don't believe in ambush politics and therefore as a professional courtesy I am advising you that I will be making an objection to the accuracy of the published Minutes from 9 November at the next meeting.

See you on Friday.

Best
